ADDITIONAL PREMIUM AREAS - MALACCA STRAIT

The Association's Circular dated 22 July 2005 adds the Malacca Strait and adjacent areas to the list of Additional Premium Areas with effect from 1 August 2005. Following further discussions with reinsurers and in order to reduce the administrative burden for Members, the Association is pleased to advise that, with immediate effect and until further notice, Members are no longer required to declare voyages involving only a transit of the Malacca Strait area although the Malacca Strait remains an Additional Premium Area. Correspondingly, no additional premium will be charged.

Voyages to ports within the Malacca Strait area, as defined in the previous Circular, must continue to be declared.
