MALCOLM ALLINSON

After eight years with North (the past four of which have been based in our Tokyo office) Malcolm Allinson has decided to leave the Club and his last day was 1 September 2016. Malcolm's existing claims will be looked after by our P&I claims staff in Newcastle and across the branch offices. We would like to take this opportunity to thank Malcolm for his service to North and to all of our Members.

Going forward, we have two developments that we would like to update you on. Robert Crichton, Deputy Director (Claims), will join the team in Tokyo from Newcastle in the autumn and we intend to further strengthen the team with the appointment of a Japanese P&I Claims Executive who is due to start in November 2016. More information will be available nearer the time.
