New International Group Video Explaining its Pooling and Reinsurance Arrangements

We would like to inform you that the International Group has recently released a new video summarising its pooling and collective market reinsurance arrangements. The video is now available for viewing and downloading from the International Group website or via North's website.

Members are encouraged to share the video with their contacts as it very effectively communicates the role and value of the International Group reinsurance system in ensuring stability and continuity of P&I cover for shipowners.

We will keep Members updated about news and developments within the International Group as they happen.
