The developing international response

The developing international response to pirate activity in the Gulf of Aden has in recent weeks resulted in the;

- publication of UN Security Council Resolution UNSCR 1838 (2008)
- launch of the European Union military coordination action (EU NAVCO)
- deployment of the NATO Standing Naval Maritime Group to the region
- provision of convoy services by the French Navy

Details of these developments are included in our updated Loss Prevention Briefing: Piracy - Gulf of Aden.
