CIRCULAR

North's 2022/23 Rule Books and List of Correspondents

North's 2022/23 Rule Books and List of Correspondents (LOC), valid from 12 noon on 20 February 2022, have been published.

They are now available to view or download from the website via the following links:

- P&I, FD&D and War Risks Rule Books
- List of Correspondents

Rule Books

Our Rules continue to be available in both online and PDF format, accessible directly at nepia.com. Our online version allows you to view individual chapters, search the full Rule Book via a powerful search and print the pages specific to you. If you want a version to be accessed offline, simply download our PDF. If you have a MyNorth account, we recommend you save a copy of the Rules to your personal library for quick access.

List of Correspondents

You can download our full List of Correspondents in PDF format from our correspondents page. This is regularly updated so the most accurate list of contact details will be found online and via the app. You can also create your own bespoke List of Correspondents, giving you quick access to the contact details you need. Read our ‘How-To’ guide for more information.

MyNorth – Have you signed up?

MyNorth provides Members, brokers and correspondents with exclusive access to our award-winning maritime intelligence platforms, premium content and value-added benefits. You can also personalise your experience on our website by creating personal publications and contacts libraries and a tailored news feed.

Smartphone App – North P&I Club Contacts and Correspondents

Members are encouraged to download our app, available on iOS and Android, for quick access to North's key contacts, correspondent network, vessel search and blue cards. The app ensures that you always have access to our most up-to-date contact details and vessel information. Once the app is downloaded, it can also be used without a Wi-Fi connection.

You can download our app here, or from your relevant app stores.
